

Use of Physical Restraint and Seclusion in Creswell School District Summary Report for 2021-22

Definitions: As used in OAR 581-021-0550 to 581-021-0566

“Physical restraint” means the restriction of a student's movement by one or more persons holding the student or applying physical pressure upon the student.

“Seclusion” means the involuntary confinement of a student alone in a room from which the student is physically prevented from leaving.

Physical restraint or seclusion may be used on a student in a public education program only if:

- (A) The student's behavior imposes a reasonable threat of imminent, serious bodily injury to the student or others; and,
- (B) Less restrictive interventions would not be effective.
